

Acknowledgments

A few words of thanks. Many people contributed to the Crown of the Continent Ecosystem Profile. I would like in particular to thank the following people for their assistance:

Steve Barrett, Bill Basko, Steve Brady, Paul Belanger, Lex Blood, Cathy Calloway, Diane Conner, Mike Conner, Anne Dahl, Mark Deleray, Joe Decker, Ian Dyson, Heidi Eijgel, Lisa Flowers, John Fraley, Barbara Grinder, Maria Mantas, Ashley Emerson Mason, Brian “Barney” Reeves, Kris Russell, Beth Russell-Towe, Allen Rowley, Randall Schwanke, Carolyn Sime, Cyndi Smith, Janice Smith, Rob Watt, Erik Wenum, Teresa Wenum, Marilyn Wood.

Ben Long, Author
April 2002
Kalispell, Montana

COCEEC Participants and Special Thanks

Author: Ben Long
Editors: Barbara Grinder
Judith Pressmar
Layout: Diane Connor
Production Assistant: Ashley Emerson-Mason
Coordinator: Lex Blood
Editorial Committee: Lex Blood,
Ashley Emerson-Mason,
John Fraley,
Janice Smith

COCEEC Participants:

Alberta Environment—NRS
Boone and Crockett Conservation
Education Program
Citizens for a Better Flathead
Flathead Lake Biological Station—
University of Montana
Flathead National Forest
Flathead Valley Community College
The Glacier Institute
Glacier National Park
Great Northern Environmental
Stewardship Area
Montana Fish, Wildlife and Parks
Montana Natural History Center
National Bison Range
National Parks Conservation Association

The Nature Conservancy of Montana
Rocky Mountain Ranger District,
U.S. Forest Service
Rocky Mountain Research Station, U.S.
Forest Service
Swan Ecosystem Center
Trail of the Great Bear
University of Montana School of Forestry
U.S. Geological Survey, Glacier Field
Station
Waterton Lakes National Park

Principal funding for preparation and printing of this Profile was received from the Wilburforce Foundation. Additional funding was received from:

Chet and David Barclay
COCEEC Participants Fund
Don and Marilyn Conlan
Fanwood Foundation
Glacier Institute
Montana Environmental Education
Association
Montana Wilderness Association
The Nature Conservancy of Montana
Rocky Mountain Outfitter
The Sustainability Fund
Ken Yachechak